

Join the Network and explore careers in housing

An internship in the Future Housing Leaders program means:

Access to training resources, like Harvard ManageMentor, webinars, and MBA education materials

Opportunities to connect with peers interning at top housing industry employers across the country

Networking with leaders in the housing industry

Chance to build skills in a real-world work environment with one of our employer partners